

Venutai Chavan College, Karad

Department of English

Lecture by Expert- 2024-25

Report

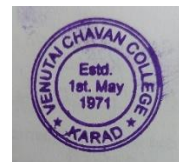

Department of English, Venutai Chavan College, Karad organised a lecture by Expert on Basic Concepts in Sociolinguistics and Nature of Sociolinguistics on Thursday, 17th October, 2024. Dr. A. T. Jadhav Associate Professor, Department of English, Yashwantrao Chavan College of Science, Karad worked as Resource Person for the lecture.

Dr. Jadhav explained the concepts in sociolinguistics- language variations, dialects, sociolects, language identity language variation, dialects, sociolects, language attitudes, and language and identity. Sociolinguistics explores the relationship between language and society, focusing on how social factors like class, gender, and culture influence language use and variation. It examines how language shapes and reflects social structures and interactions, including how we use language to communicate identity and social meaning. Key concepts include

Dr. R. R. Thorat Head, Department of English welcomed the resource person and delivered an introductory note. Miss. Vidya Talkute introduced the chief guest and Miss Shradha Kumbhar proposed a vote of thanks. Miss Subiya Momin did compering for the expert lecture.

Venutai Chavan College, Karad
Department of English

Lecture by Expert 2024-25

Table Programme

Welcome & Introduction	:	Dr. R.R. Thorat
Introduction to the Resource Person	:	Mrs. Vidya Talkute
Resource Person	:	Dr. Arvind Jadhav Associate Professor YCCS, Karad
Vote of Thanks	:	Mrs. Shradha Kumbhar
Compering	:	Miss Subiya Momin

Thursday, 17th October, 2024
Time- 11.30am
Venue- L.H.No.20

