Lecture by Expert 2024-25
Report

Date- 21/10/2024

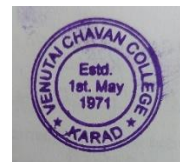

Department of English, Venutai Chavan College, Karad organised a lecture by Expert on Research Methodology in English on Monday, 21st October, 2024. Dr. Mrs. Surekha Patil, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Sadguru Gadage Maharaj College, Karad worked as Resource Person for the lecture.

Dr. S. S. Patil explained the concept of research in English language and literature. She explored the definitions of research. She focused various methods, including biographical, archival, textual, and theoretical approaches. This methodology helps researchers identify, analyze, and interpret literary texts, authorial context, and cultural influences to advance knowledge and understanding. Then she talked about the aspects of research methodology in English such as selection of research problems, literature review, selection of methods, data collection and its analysis, interpretation etc. Dr. Patil also gave examples of research topics from different areas.

Mrs. S. P. Patil welcomed and set the introductory note. Mrs. Vidya Talkute introduced the chief guest and Mrs. Shobha Muley proposed a vote of thanks. Mrs. Shradha Kumbhar did compering for the expert lecture.
