

Venutai Chavan College, Karad

Department of Political Science

Self-Design Course

Political Science for Comparative Exam

About the Course:

This intensive 30-day certificate course is designed to equip aspirants of UPSC and MPSC (Class 1 & 2) with a strong conceptual and analytical foundation in Political Science. It caters to the evolving needs of competitive examinations, focusing on both static and dynamic components of the subject political science.

Comprehensive coverage of key topics in Political Science including Indian Polity, Political Theory, Comparative Politics, International Relations, and Public Administration.

Special focus on the Indian Constitution, Governance, Political Institutions, and Current Affairs.

Daily interactive lectures, doubt-clearing sessions, and practice questions. Expert guidance from experienced faculty and guest speakers Model MCQs and previous year question analysis.

Objectives of Course:

- Convincing the importance of political sci. to the students who facing the competitive exam.
- Teaching Political Science course for the Competitive Exam.
- To create awareness among the students about the competitive examination

Course Duration :

1. Self-Design Certificate Course – 1 Month (30 Hours)

Course Coordinator
Dept. Of Political Science